PROFESSIONAL DISCLOSURE

Licensees are required to display a professional disclosure statement at the place where services are performed and to make a copy of the statement available to clients upon request. The information to be included on the professional disclosure statement is as follows:

1. The name, title, business address, and business phone number of the licensee performing the service.
2. The formal professional education of the licensee, including his/her academic degree, the institutions awarding those degrees and the dates they were received.
 - a. "Formal professional education" means the licensee's academic training related to counseling which meets the educational requirements for licensure as a counselor.
 - b. Academic degrees that do not meet the requirements for licensure, are not formal professional education as defined by the Board of Examiner in Counseling rules and should not be listed.
3. The licensee's area of competence in counseling and the services that he/she provides, based on training and experience, from the following list, as is appropriate: career counseling, child and adolescent counseling, personal and social counseling, educational counseling, marriage counseling, family counseling, pastoral counseling, gerontological counseling, rehabilitation counseling, human resources counseling, employee assistance counseling, mental health counseling, consultation, school counseling, supervision, and diagnosis and treatment of mental and emotional disorders.
4. The fee schedule: If you are in private practice the fee schedule should reflect the cost of your services. If you work for an agency (profit or non-profit) the fee schedule should reflect the fee your agency charges the client for your services.

The following legal and ethical principles apply in providing the professional disclosure statement:

1. The provision of the professional disclosure statement is the sole responsibility of the licensee. A copy of the professional disclosure statement must be submitted to the Board upon request. (Need copy of your statement within 15 days)
2. The purpose of professional disclosure is to provide sufficient information to aid the consumer public in making informed judgments and choices on matters that concern it.
3. When choosing areas of competence and services provided to be listed on their professional disclosure statement, licensees should be guided by: "The licensee neither claims nor implies professional qualifications exceeding those professed."
4. In listing areas of competence and services provided on the professional disclosure statement, licensees should adhere to the scope of practice of professional counseling and delivery of services as defined in Section 30-31-2 of the West Virginia Code and as stated in Section 27-1-11 of the rules of the Board of Examiners in Counseling..
